Twenty-Seventh Sunday After Pentecost

Martyrs Menas, Eugraphos & Hermogenes of Alexandria; Venerable Thomas Dephourkinos of Bithynia; Blessed Angelina Brancovich and her son Blessed John, King of Serbia; Joasaph, Bishop of Belgorod

Troparion of Resurrection (Tone 2): When thou didst submit thyself unto death, O thou deathless and immortal One, then thou didst destroy hell with thy Godly power. And when thou didst raise the dead from beneath the earth, all the powers of Heaven did cry aloud unto thee: O Christ, thou giver of life, glory to thee.

Troparion of Ss. Menas, Eugraphos & Hermogenes (Tone 8): Since they had slain through their abstinence and struggles the fiery ragings and fierce motions of the passions, the staunch Martyrs of Christ God laid hold on the graces to drive off the pains and illnesses of the sick and work wonders both while living and after death. Strange indeed is the miracle that these bare bones should pour forth such overflowing streams of cures. Glory be to our only God.

Troparion of Sts. Peter & Paul (Tone 4): O first enthroned of the Apostles, teachers of the universe, entreat the Master of all to grant peace to the world and great mercy to our souls.

Kontakion of Preparation of Christ's Nativity (Tone 3): Today the Virgin cometh to the cave where she will give birth in an ineffable manner to the Word who is before all the ages. Rejoice, therefore, O universe, when thou hearest it heralded: Glorify Him with the angels and the shepherds, who chose to be seen as a new-born babe, the God who is before all the ages.
